

A GUIDE AROUND

Our Tiny Island

SINGAPORE

Hi there,

We are delighted that you have chosen to stay with us at Holiday Inn Singapore Atrium. On behalf of the entire team, we extend to you a very warm welcome and we hope you enjoy your stay with us.

Singapore is a sunny tropical island-city made up of different cultures and people. Though it is sunny most of the time, there will be occasional rains. So to make your visit a memorable one, we have created a checklist for the things you might need when heading out.

EAT WHERE ALL THE FOODIES EAT

Tiong Bahru Market is a bustling culinary destination, renowned for housing both a wet market and a vibrant hawker centre on its second floor. It's a top pick in Singapore thanks to its multiple Michelin Bib Gourmand Award recipients.

(Stall opening hours may vary, so it's best to head down before 1pm for the widest selection of tasty bites.)

Getting there:

Take a 7-10 minute stroll to Tiong Bahru Market.

Prefer to skip the tropical heat? You can also walk through Havelock MRT underpass and exit via Exit 1 or 2 for a cooler route.
